Attractions, arts and culture abound

“Heart of the Arts.” Midtown is proud to be home to the Southeast’s largest concentration of arts organizations and facilities. Museums, galleries, and theaters are all just steps away and are sure to entertain and inspire you. Piedmont Park, Atlanta’s biggest green space, is within walking distance along with the High Museum of Art and the Margaret Mitchell House, author of “Gone with the Wind.” Other nearby Atlanta attractions include the world’s largest aquarium, the Georgia Aquarium; World of Coca-Cola; CNN Center; Philips Arena; Georgia Dome; Georgia World Congress Center; and Centennial Olympic Park.

CONVENIENT TRANSPORTATION

Getting to and from the hotel is simple. Take a taxi, we are 13 miles and about 20 minutes from Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport. If driving, travel north on I-75/85, take the 10th/14th Street Exit (250) and turn right on Spring Street, Left on Abercrombie St and turn left on W Peachtree Street. Hotel will be to your left.

You can also take MARTA, Atlanta's rapid rail line, to the Midtown MARTA station. Walk just one block on W Peachtree Street to the hotel. MARTA's one-way cost is just $2.50!

Once at Hyatt Midtown Atlanta you will be steps away from everything you want to see and do. Our oversized sidewalks make it easy and convenient (and free!) to get to your next adventure in Midtown.
