

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 4, 2009

Once a year, Paris lights up the city with art for NUIT BLANCHE. Toronto does the same with all night art revelry. In Santa Monica, GLOW transforms the pier, the beach and Palisades Park for art encounters from dusk to dawn.

Le Flash Atlanta & Atlanta Celebrates Photography (ACP) announce
- LE FLASH ATLANTA 2009 -

Coming this October, for the second year in a row, LE FLASH ATLANTA will feature over 40 projects in Castleberry Hill's streets and galleries, vacant lots and windows, warehouses and rooftops.

Fantastical art and creative events will again fill a night out in the neighborhood. Atlanta expects to be showered with the light and sound of installations, performance art, poetry readings, music, video projections and other lens-based projects, an iron pour and art happenings of all sorts.

The event will illuminate the district from dusk to midnight, creating a unique cultural experience, and leaving a trace of magic and mystery in the minds of those who see it.

Learn more and see images from Le Flash 2008 here: <http://www.leflash-atl.com/> and here: <http://burnaway.org/2008/10/le-flashhighlights/>

This year—rain or shine—Le Flash returns to Castleberry Hill, on Friday, October 2, as the opening event of Atlanta Celebrates Photography's 11th annual festival!

*More information will appear on leflash-atl.com on June 15th.
For questions, email: LeFlash.2009.Atlanta@gmail.com*