Atlanta Celebrates Photography (ACPinfo.org) is pleased to announce that Meg Griffiths, the recipient of the 2012 Serenbe Exhibition Award as part of the Atlanta Celebrates Photography Portfolio Review, will unveil her exhibition May 3rd at Serenbe Photography Center (visit serenbephotographycenter.com for more information).

Selected by Atlanta’s Jennifer Schwartz of Jennifer Schwartz Gallery, from over fifty attendees at the ACP Portfolio Review, Ms. Griffiths’ work represents “a modest cross section of Cuban casas particulares.” The exhibition will run through May 31st.

In addition to her exhibition at Serenbe, Ms. Griffiths will be leading an Artist Book Workshop on May 4th. Please see serenbephotographycenter.com to register for this workshop. Space in limited.

Meg Griffiths was born in Bloomington, Indiana and raised in Houston, Texas. She received two B.A.’s at the University of Texas in Cultural Anthropology and English Literature and earned her Master of Fine Arts from Savannah College of Art and Design. She currently lives in Columbia, South Carolina where she is an adjunct professor of photography in the McMaster College of Art at the University of South Carolina. Her work has been shown in multiple venues around the United States including: the Carte Blanche Gallery and the Rayko Gallery in San Francisco, Houston Center for Photography, and the Ogelthorpe Gallery in Savannah, GA. She has also been published in PDN, South by Southeast Magazine, LPV Magazine, Lenscratch, Le Journal de la Photographie, Fraction Magazine, and Silver and Ink. Her work has been added to several private collections and is part of the permanent collection at the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston.

For information, please contact ACP’s Program Manager: Michael David Murphy info@ACPinfo.org

###